What Is the King and Maxwell Series?

The King and Maxwell series is a line of premium home furnishings and accessories launched by the renowned design studio King & Maxwell Interiors. Established in 2005, the studio has built a reputation for marrying Scandinavian minimalism with British heritage, resulting in pieces that are both functional and aesthetically striking. Each item in the series undergoes a meticulous design process, from initial sketches to prototype testing, ensuring durability without compromising style.

Unlike mass-produced furniture, the King and Maxwell series is handcrafted in small batches. This approach guarantees that each piece reflects the brand's commitment to sustainable materials, precise joinery, and thoughtful detailing. The result is a product line that feels personal, yet sophisticated—perfect for modern living spaces that demand both comfort and character.

History and Design Philosophy

The inspiration behind the King and Maxwell series stems from the founders' shared love of architecture and storytelling. Their design philosophy is built around three core principles:

1. Timelessness – Designs are created to last decades, transcending fleeting trends.
2. Functionality – Every item solves a real-life problem, whether it's storage, comfort, or lighting.
3. Sustainability – The use of responsibly sourced wood, recycled metals, and low VOC finishes is mandatory.

These principles guide every decision—from material selection to finish options—ensuring that the King and Maxwell series remains relevant and beloved by future generations.
