How to Use OBOB Practice Questions 2023 Effectively

Having a large pool of questions is only half the battle. The real advantage comes from a systematic approach to practice.

1. Create a Study Schedule

Allocate at least 30–40 hours per week for OBOB prep. Divide your time based on the exam pattern:

- Finance & Accounting: 5 hours
- Marketing & Strategy: 5 hours
- Operations & Supply Chain: 4 hours
- Human Resources & Organizational Behavior: 4 hours
- Ethics & Legal Compliance: 4 hours
- Business Analytics & Technology: 4 hours

Within each block, alternate between reading, note taking, and practice questions.

2. Use the "Test Learn Test" Cycle

Follow this proven cycle:

1. Test: Attempt a set of 20–25 practice questions from a specific topic.
2. Learn: Review each answer, focusing on why incorrect choices were wrong.
3. Test: Reattempt the same set after a short break to reinforce learning.

Repeat this cycle daily, gradually increasing question volume.

3. Track Your Performance

Maintain a spreadsheet or study log. Record:

- Topic and subtopic
- Number of questions attempted
- Correct answers
- Time taken per question
- Notes on misconceptions

Use this data to identify trends and adjust your study plan accordingly.

4. Simulate Exam Conditions

Every two weeks, take a full-length mock exam. Set a timer, avoid distractions, and treat it as the real test. Afterward, analyze your performance: which sections were strong, which were weak, and why.

5. Review with Experts

Consider joining study groups or online forums where you can discuss challenging questions. Explaining concepts to others reinforces your own understanding.
